

IFC, a member of the World Bank Group, is the largest global development institution focused exclusively on the private sector in developing countries. Established in 1956, IFC is owned by 184 member countries. Our work in more than a 100 developing countries allows companies and financial institutions in emerging markets to create jobs, generate tax revenues, improve corporate governance and environmental performance, and contribute to their local communities

Internship Opportunity: IFC – Latin America and the Caribbean

Main assignments

- Financial statement and operational analysis of companies in various sectors (focus on services, agribusiness and manufacturing)
- Work with financial models to track historical performance and generate pro-forma for forward-looking analysis
- Portfolio tracking and monitoring systems for clients, located in Brazil or other countries in South America
- Monitoring compliance with operational, reporting and financial ratio covenants
- Monitoring projects progress for IFC investments in Greenfield operations or fast-growing companies
- Support the prospection of potential clients and conduct industry and market research
- Supporting the valuation of equity and derivative instruments of IFC investments

Pre requisites

- Studying Business Administration, Economics or Engineering
- Graduation as of July 2021 or later
- Knowledge in accounting and finance
- Full command of English, verbal and written
- Advanced Microsoft Excel skills

To apply, please send your CV in English for Dayane Angelo (Dangelo@ifc.org)

Closing date – February 28, 2020